Program Summary

City Year New Orleans AmeriCorps members will provide academic and school engagement services to students in 6 public charter schools in New Orleans, Louisiana. At the end of the first program year, the AmeriCorps members will be responsible for providing whole school services to approximately 2,500 students, classroom services to 1,600 students, and individualized services to over 600 students to improve their academic skills in English and/or math. The AmeriCorps members will leverage 50 volunteers who will be engaged in service projects that improve the school communities. This program will focus on the CNCS focus areas of Education.
